

SBRSA Membership Committee Charter

Preamble

The Summit Bechtel Reserve Membership Committee is apart of the Summit Bechtel Reserve Staff Association and the Boy Scouts of America.

Article 1: Purpose

The Membership Committee of the Summit Bechtel Reserve Staff Association strives to strengthen our membership, connect our members, support the Summit Bechtel Reserve staff, promote the Summit Bechtel Reserve and its programs, and promote lasting fellowship of our members.

Article 2: Objectives

Our objectives are as follows:

1. Promote membership into the SBRSA to eligible Scouters
2. Highlight the work of the SBRSA to our members via Social Media, our newsletter, and our website
3. Maintaining the SBRSA Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook accounts
4. Promote the sale of any and all SBRSA products
5. Hold a membership drive during the Jamboree to recruit new members
6. Promote the annual SBRSA "Mountaineer Weekend" at the Summit
7. Support the staff of the SBR with any and all needs
8. Complete any other duties as assigned by the SBRSA President or SBRSA Staff Advisor

Article 3: Membership of the Committee

The SBRSA Membership Committee is chaired by the SBRSA Vice President. At least one of the SBRSA Regional Representatives will serve on the SBRSA Membership Committee, as appointed by the SBRSA President. The SBR Seasonal Staff Representative will also be a member of the SBRSA Membership to represent the Seasonal Staff needs.

Any member can propose a new member to the committee, but any and all appointees to the SBRSA Membership Committee must be members of the SBRSA, registered Scouters, and approved by the President. There should be a balance of members from the four different Regions of the Boy Scouts of America. No more than 10 members total should be on the SBRSA Membership Committee at anytime.

Terms of office for the Vice President, Regional Representative, and Seasonal Representative will follow the terms of office set by the SBRSA Charter. After the election of a new SBRSA Vice President, he or she will appoint new members to the SBRSA Membership Committee, in conjunction with the SBRSA President.
